The Festival of Faith and the Arts

2018 - 2019

32nd Season

Welcome to the Bethany Lutheran Church Festival of Faith and the Arts.

As a congregation we are thrilled to share in this endeavor to keep the arts alive in our area. The wonders of God are made known in so many ways. God enriches our lives by gifting people with artistic talent. Whenever these gifts are shared we all benefit. Our prayer is that you will encounter God through the arts.

I also offer a heartfelt invitation to you to engage in the ministry of Bethany Lutheran Church. Through worship, service to our community and world, and the joy of Christian community, we are a diverse congregation that is ready to welcome you. Please contact me at any time to learn about this wonderful community of faith.

Joyfully Serving Christ,

Pastor Gary Sandberg, Lead Pastor, Bethany Lutheran Church

Welcome to the Festival of Faith and the Arts 32nd Season!

Each season offers a wide variety of opportunities and experiences to encounter, with both returning friends and new faces. The Festival of Faith and the Arts has something for everyone - choral and instrumental concerts; programs for children, youth and adults; visual art displays; as well as worship and spiritual enrichment opportunities.

You will find a listing of the opportunities and groups in this brochure, including contact information. Our mission is to offer programming that will engage the mind, stir the spirit, encourage the heart and uplift the soul.

Come. Experience and be a part of these exceptional opportunities in this exceptional place. Bethany is dedicated to the arts and to serving the people of this community - for the mind, spirit, heart and soul.

Come. Experience the extraordinary.

About Bethany Lutheran Church

A congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), Bethany Lutheran is a Christian community rooted in the Gospel, focused on sharing God's grace and love in Jesus Christ with all people. Our vision is to be a preeminent missional church of the ELCA, recognized for forming vibrant faith among its disciples in order that they may be claimed, gathered, and sent.

We call upon our community of believers to worship meaningfully, witness intentionally, grow spiritually, serve purposefully, care resolutely, and fellowship authentically in order that we, together, may achieve our mission for equipping, empowering, and unleashing our members and staff to live as God's baptized people:

- Claimed as disciples of Christ in God who forms lifelong vibrant faith
- Gathered as disciples of Christ participating in meaningful worship and community
- Sent as disciples of Christ, living and witnessing as the body of Christ, seeking justice, and sharing God's mercy through care and service to those in the Denver community and beyond.

Saturday, Oct. 6, 2018 7:30pm Ars Nova Singers

“Sacred Jazz: Mass in Blue”

Experience this “exuberant and electrifying” mass for jazz ensemble, soprano, and choir. This innovative work weaves imaginative melodies, with 12-bar blues and up-beat grooves in a hybrid style that has been described as “religious doctrine meets funk!”

Sunday, Oct. 7, 2018 3:00pm Baroque Chamber Orchestra of Colorado

“Handel & Purcell - The London Connection”

Cynthia Miller Freivogel, violin soloist and leader

Extraordinary music from Handel and Purcell, two brilliant composers whose music was connected by the vibrant backdrop of London.

Wednesday, Oct. 10, 2018 10:00am Town Hall of Denver Lectures

Lynn Novick – “A Morning with Lynn Novick”

Among Lynn’s work is the 18 hour series The Vietnam War as well as Jazz, The Civil War, Baseball, and Frank Lloyd Wright. How did this Magna Cum Laude, Yale Grad create the career she has today, and when did the collaborative partnership with Ken Burns, who co-directed/produced the above films, come to be? Spend a morning tracing her fascinating career.

Friday, Oct. 12, 2018 7:30pm The Cherry Creek Chorale

Saturday, Oct. 13, 2018 7:30pm The Cherry Creek Chorale

“American Songbook III: Timeless Beauty, Timeless Appeal”

Beginning its 39th Season, this program features the timeless beauty of Lauridsen’s masterpiece, Lux Aeterna, combined with the timeless appeal of Disney “classics”.

Sunday, Oct. 14, 2018 6:00pm Colorado Bach Ensemble

Cantata Insight Series: BWV 180 - Schmücke dich, o liebe Seele

(Beloved soul, adorn yourself)

The Gospel of Matthew 22 inspired this chorale-cantata, celebrating the Parable of the Great Banquet (the Sacrament of Holy Communion). More intimate in nature, CBE presents this beautiful work featuring four vocal soloists and one instrumentalist per part.
